

HIGH SCHOOL SORORITY SISTERS ENJOY FIRST REUNION IN 13 YEARS

Sorority sisters who graduated from San Pedro High in 1939 got a chance to renew old friendships for the first time in 13 years last Saturday night when they gathered at the 2054 Reynosa Dr. home of Mrs. Gordon Jones.

Coming all the way from Seattle, Wash., for the event was Mrs. William Carkeek, who was a guest at the Jones home for five days. Another long-distance traveler who attended was Miss Marion Peterson of San Diego, who was a week-end guest at the home of Mrs. Edward Hansen, 1220 Elm St.

Others joining in reminiscences of the past, looking at old photograph albums, and duplicating poses of 13 years ago for a present-day album were Mesdames Herbert May of Gardena, James Longrich of San Pedro, Richard Jones of Santa Barbara, Hansen, and the hostess.

Husbands of the sorority sisters joined the party later for a trip to Knotts Berry Farm. Sightseeing done, the guests returned to the Jones home for refreshments and renewal of conversation about old times.

TIME PLEASE! . . . Mr. and Mrs. Jose Olloque, 2251 W. 203rd St., admire a horse-drawn electric clock, one of the many gifts they received last Saturday night when their daughter, Mrs. Pearl Vidal, hosted an open house in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

J. Olloques, Residents Here For 25 Years, Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

About 50 friends and relatives gathered at the 2251 W. 203rd St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Olloque last Saturday night to help them celebrate half that many years of married life.

The Olloques, who were married here in August, 1928, have lived all of their married life in this city. During the same 25-year period, the silver groom has been employed at Columbia Steel, while his bride has been active in activities at St. Joseph's Church.

Hosting the affair for their parents were their daughter, Mrs. Pearl Vidal, and three sons Joe, Manuel, and John Olloque. For the occasion, Mrs. Olloque chose a navy blue lace cocktail dress.

An anniversary cake decorated with silver bells, pink roses, and a silver horseshoe inscribed "good luck" was the center of attraction on the dining table.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Fetes Popular Elaine Rehwoldt

Pretty Miss Elaine Rehwoldt opened many gifts for the home she will establish when she marries Newton Metfessel, psychology instructor at Compton College, next Sunday, when friends gathered at the 1452 Post Ave. home of Mrs. C. E. Carstens last Monday night.

Mrs. Carstens and her daughter, Erma, shared hostess honors at the pre-nuptial shower for the Pepperdine College co-ed, daughter of Seaside School Principal Walter Rehwoldt and his wife, 1601 El Prado.

To carry out the shower theme, a pink watering can with miniature gifts sprinkling from the spout centered the gift table. Tiny sprinkling vessels were at each place setting at the refreshment table, which was highlighted by a pink and white decorated cake inscribed with the names of the affianced couple and flanked by white tapers.

White wedding bells completed table decor.

Traditional shower games were played, with prizes going to Marion McDonald and Ann Stephens. Others attending were Misses Alicia Lorange, Marcella Wright, Jeanne Whitten, Barbara Smith, Emily Burchfield, Mickey Van Deventer, Jane Fish, Sandra Scott, JoAnn Benard, Joan Melvin, Annette Castener, Carol Clark, Donna Friedman, Barbara Zachary, the honoree, Carstens, and Barbara Jackson of Rochester, N. Y., who is presently a guest at the Carstens home.

Mesdames Tom Burchfield, Sadie Chambers, Carstens, and Walter Rehwoldt, mother of the honoree. Also invited but unable to attend was Mrs. Milton Metfessel, mother of the benedict-elect.

Next Thursday Night for Jive

Jitterbug and boogie woogie teeners will have a chance to dance to latest live jive rhythms next Thursday evening, Sept. 3, at Lomita Park.

The dance, sponsored by the "Shades of Rhythm," will continue from 7 to 10 p.m., according to Leroy Griffith, publicity manager for the band. Pianist Jim Balcom leads the five-piece combo, which is composed of all-local talent. Others in the spotlight are Henry Brink, drummer, who formerly played with the "Keynotes"; Orville Balcarozon, saxophone artists.

HARBOR PTA HAS DAD, WORKING MOM IN MIND

Fathers and working parents, also highlighted the session, will get a break in Harbor City PTA activities this year.

In order that they may attend meetings and see their children perform on the programs, seven out of nine sessions slated this year will be held at 7:15 p.m.

First meeting of the school year will be held at this hour on Sept. 24, with a welcome to all parents and teachers stressed in the program.

Plans for the meeting were made last week when the executive board met at the 26010 President Ave. home of the president, Mrs. Ray Groover. Ratification of new chairman legislation.

Kermit Snow, Community Chest; Leland Van Buren, program; Manuela Matute, Spanish interpretation; Carl Gregory, Founders' Day; and Carl Sierra, legislation.

Women's Legion Post Plays Hostess to District Tonight

South Bay Women's Post 692, American Legion, will hostess 19th District Legion Posts and Auxiliaries tonight, 8 o'clock, at the South Bay Clubhouse, 412 Camino Real, with a special program devoted to child welfare.

Detective Sgt. Curt Richardson, of the Redondo Beach Police Department, Juvenile Division, will be speaker of the evening, choosing "Narcotics" as his topic.

As this subject is of interest to many non-Legionnaires in the area, the session will be open to the public, said Mrs. Beatrice Bundy, commander of the hostessing post.

Two members of the group, Hospital Chairman Dorothy Boyle and Joan Gunn recently visited Rancho Los Amigos Hospital, taking gingerbread boys to the child patients. Mrs. Edith White of Torrance was among Long Beach Women's Post members taking cookies to other hospital patients.
